ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special thanks must be extended to the following people whose contributions to this volume were of particular importance:

Larry Bigman (Frazetta-Williamson data); Landon Chesney (E. C. data); John S. Fawcett (Disney data); Jim Lamb (Marvel data); Don Rosa (most all titles of the late 1940's and early 1950's); David Smith (Lone Ranger data); David R. Smith, Archivist, Walt Disney Productions (Disney data); Don and Maggie Thompson (Four Color listing); Mike Tiefenbacher and Jerry Sinkovec (Atlas and National data); and Andrew Zerbe (M. E. data).

My appreciation must also be extended to Billy Hoover, Harry Thomas and Sonny Johnson for their consultation and loan of comic material for photographing; to Bill Thailing for his help in editing; to Bruce Hamilton for his contribution of data and comic covers; and to Bill Spicer for his kind permission to reprint portions of his and Jerry Bails' America's Four Color Pastime.

I will always be indebted to Harry Thomas and Landon Chesney, whose advise and concern has helped in making the Price Guide a reality; to my wife, Martha, for her encouragement and help in putting this reference work together; and to everyone who placed ads in this edition.

Acknowledgement is also due the following people, who have so generously contributed much needed data for this edition:

PREFACE...

Comic book values listed in this reference work were obtained by averaging prices supplied from various dealers' catalogues just prior to publication. Prices, though, are only probable as values occasionally change due to a comic book market that sometimes becomes inflationary.

Everyone connected with the publication of this book advocates the collecting of comic books for fun and pleasure, as well as nostalgia, art, and cultural values. Second to this is investment, which, if wisely placed in the best quality books (condition and contents considered), will yield dividends over the long term.

Some comic book titles listed are incomplete, especially in regard to first and last issues, but this will be remedied in future editions as the information becomes available.

By the same token, books in the "very rare" class are seldom offered for sale. This makes it difficult to arrive at a realistic "Market value". Arbitrary values are placed on these, although even this varies considerably. Among the issues in this category are: Action #1, Detective #27, Whiz #2 (#1), Superman #1, Marvel Mystery #1, Batman #1, Jumbo #1, More Fun #52, and Captain America #1.

Pages 12-300 consist of probably one of the most comprehensive lists of comic books ever attempted. Comic book titles, dates of first and last issues, publishing companies, origin and special issues are listed when known. Some artists are pointed out, also.

TERMINOLOGY. Two terms used frequently in this edition are "cameo" and "x-over". Cameo is when a character appears briefly and x-over is when one character crosses over into another character's strip.

A SPECIAL PLEA. Please notify me of any omissions, corrections, or deletions of data in this volume so that I may include it in the next edition.

IMPORTANT. This book is not a "For Sale" list of comic books. The publisher of this reference work is a collector, and has no comic books for sale. Therefore, the prices listed are for your information only.

DEALERS' POSITION. Prices listed herein are an indication of what collectors (not dealers) would probably pay. For one reason or another, these collectors might want certain books badly, or else need specific issues to complete their runs. Dealers are not in a position to pay the full prices listed, but work on a percentage depending largely on the amount of investment required and the quality of material offered. Usually, on the rarer books, dealers will pay 50% or more of the list price depending on title and condition. Generally speaking, the larger the collection, the lower the percentage. His position is that of handling, demand, and overhead. Most dealers are victims of these economics. Good Luck, and Happy Hunting!

GRADING COMIC BOOKS

Before a comic book's true value can be assessed, its "condition" or state of preservation must be determined. In most all comic books, and especially in the rarer issues, the better the condition, the more desirable the book. The scarcer "number ones" and origin issues in "Mint" condition may bring several times the price of the same book in poor condition. The grading of a comic book is done by simply looking at the book and describing what you see using a scale from "newsstand condition", or "Mint", to "Fair" or "Poor". Cutting defects, torn pages, tape repairs, water marks, brittle pages, etc., influence the grading; e.g. a comic book in "Mint" condition would probably grade somewhere between "Poor" and "Good" if it had brittle pages. In grading, you must be careful, and not allow "wishful thinking" to influence what your eyes see. To the novice, grading will appear difficult at first, but as experience is gained, accuracy will improve. Whenever in doubt, consult with a reputable dealer or experienced collector in your area. The following grading guide is given to aid the inexperienced collector:

CONDITION OF COMIC BOOKS

*MINT (M):	Perfect; absolutely like new, regardless of age; No printing or cutting defects; still retains original printing lustre and gloss, but could be slightly discolored due to age; no creases in the covers or spine. Arrival dates pencilled on the cover does not detract from this condition.
NEAR MINT (NM):	Almost perfect; carefully read and stored away; very slight wear or discoloration around edges only. Most of the printing gloss retained.
FINE (FN):	Slight wear beginning to show; still retains enough gloss to be desirable. Read once or twice and stored away.
VERY GOOD (VG):	Tight cover, some signs of wear; minor markings, but none that deface the cover; some discoloration, but not soiled; obviously a read copy; original printing lustre and gloss almost gone; slight professionally applied magic tape repairs acceptable (usually on the spine); better than good but not quite fine.
GOOD (G):	An average used copy complete with both covers and no panels missing; slightly soiled or marked; possibly creased or slightly damaged along the edges requiring some magic tape repairs professionally applied, and the spine could be taped.
FAIR (F):	Complete, except possibly both covers requiring or having several tape repairs or tears; damaged by the elements, but fairly sound and completely legible.

POOR (P):                      Damaged; heavily weathered; soiled; or otherwise unsuited for collection purposes.

IMPORTANT: Books with defects such as pages or panels missing, coupons cut, torn or taped covers and pages, brown or brittle pages, restapled, heavily taped spines or covers, water marked, printing defects, stained, holed, or other imperfections that distract from the original beauty, are worth less than if free of these defects.

* Another term used in connection with this condition is "Pristine Mint", which means an unusually nice "Mint" copy.

WHY PEOPLE COLLECT COMICS

Collecting is one of the most universal avocations of man. There is no end to the list of things people collect. Every artifact of man and nature - from matchbook covers to great works of art - is, at one time or another, the object of some collector's frantic search. To the non-collector this mania must seem incomprehensible; but to the collector himself, it is a fascinating and continuously rewarding pastime.

Many people would be surprised to learn that along with coins, stamps, and books, one of the most prized collectors' items throughout the world is panel art - i.e., comics magazines, newspaper comic strips, and related material. People of all ages from all walks of life collect "comics." Scientists, engineers, teachers, actors, artists, writers, businessmen, laborers, students, and people from every possible background spend many delightful hours with this hobby.

People collect panel-art for a variety of reasons. Some collectors are amateur comic artists and writers, or even professionals in the field, who collect outstanding examples of cartoons and strips as inspiration for their own work. Others collect and study the comics as examples of popular art, interesting in their own right or because they reflect the culture of the period in which they are produced. However, the vast majority of panelologists (i.e., comics collectors) want only to enhance their own enjoyment of this popular medium or recapture "the sense of wonder" that the comics provided in their youth. In addition to true collectors, there are also those who speculate in comics - i.e., merely buy comics to resell at a profit. There is a little bit of the speculator in all collectors.

SCARCITY OF COMIC BOOKS

Most all comic books prior to 1942 are very hard to find and rarely turn up. The paper drives of World War II and beyond consumed untold millions of comic books not to mention the hundreds of thousands sent over seas to the armed services. This, associated with the American tradition of burning what few comics and magazines were left has produced today an extremely rare collectors' item - the comic book. This is not true, however, of the comic books of the middle to late 1960's. Because of the publicity given comic collecting by the news media during this time, plus the ever growing ranks of serious collectors produced by the then popular Marvel movement, unknown numbers of people were influenced to save their comics. Comic books of the 1960's were searched out and bought up in the thousands by (1) dealers, to supply the growing numbers of comic collectors, and (2) others speculating that they, like the golden age books, would someday become valuable. Due to this, books from 1964 to present are in plentiful supply, while books prior to this time are scarce and their rarity increases with age.

In almost every case, the first issues are the most sought after, with origin issues running second, and issues with special artists, third. This "higher demand" produces a scarcity on these particular books, forcing the price up. Unless collecting habits change dramatically in the near future, this trend should continue.

COMICS WITH LITTLE IF ANY VALUE

There exists in the comic book market, as in all other collector's markets, items, usually of recent origin, that have relatively little if any value. Why even mention it? We wouldn't, except for one thing - this is where you could probably take your worst beating, investment-wise. Since these books are listed by dealers in such profusion, at prices which will vary up to 500% from one dealer's list to another, determining a realistic "Market" value is almost impossible. And since the same books are listed repeatedly, list after list, month after month, it is difficult to determine whether or not these books are selling. In some cases, it is doubtful that they are even being collected. Most dealers must get a minimum price for their books, otherwise, it would not be profitable to handle. This will sometimes force a value on an otherwise valueless item.

THE PRICE GUIDE'S POSITION: On the other hand, you might buy a vastly over-priced golden-age comic and still expect to recover your loss after a reasonable passage of time. This, unfortunately, is not true of so many titles that we are put in a rather awkward position of listing. We don't want to leave a title out just because it is presently valueless. And at the same time, we don't want to presume to "establish" what is collectible and what isn't. The passage of time and a change in collectors' interests can make almost any comic potentially valuable. Some books, just by virtue of their age, will someday obtain a value as a cultural or historical curiosity. Therefore, we feel that all books, regardless of the demand for them, should be listed.

Since speculation in the comic book market started becoming popular around 1964, most all titles since that time have been saved and are in plentiful supply. Most of these books have been included for your information and can be found listed throughout the Guide with arbitrary values assigned. The collector would be well advised to compare prices between several dealers lists before ordering this type of material.

HOW TO START COLLECTING

Most collectors of comic books begin by buying new issues in mint condition directly off the newsstand. (Subscription copies are, as a rule, folded and, hence, unsuited for collecting purposes.) Each week new comics appear on the stands that are destined to become true collectors items. The trick is to locate a store that carries a complete line of comics. In some localities this may be Difficult. Most panelologists frequent several magazine stands in order not to miss something they want. Even then it pays to keep in close contact with collectors in other areas. Sooner or later nearly every collector has to rely upon a friend in Fandom to obtain for him an item that is unavailable locally.

Once you have located a good source of new comics, find out on what days the comics are delivered. Plan to drop by regularly as soon after the comics are checked in as possible. This way you may avoid missing an issue, and you will also stand a better chance of getting mint copies. You will find that comics rapidly become damaged on the stands, especially when they are displayed in certain kinds of racks.

Before you buy any comic to add to your collection, you should carefully inspect its condition. Unlike stamps and coins, defective comics are generally not highly prized. The cover should be properly cut and printed. Remember that every blemish or sign of wear depreciates the beauty and value of your comics.

The serious panelologist usually purchases extra copies of popular titles. He may trade these multiples for items unavailable locally (for example, foreign comics), or he may store the multiples for resale at some future date. Such speculation is, of course, a gamble, but unless collecting trends change radically in the future, the value of certain comics in mint condition should appreciate greatly, as new generations of readers become interested in collecting. It is important, of course, that comics be stored properly to protect them from dust, moisture, and other destructive agents. Many collectors store their comics in polyethylene bags, available at most grocery stores under several trade names. Each bag will easily accommodate a dozen or more issues. (CAUTION: leave the end of the bags unsealed to avoid spontaneous combustion.) Comic bags are also available from dealers at a reasonable cost.

COLLECTING BACK ISSUES

In addition to current issues, most panelologists want to locate back issues. Some energetic collectors have had great success in running down large hoards of rare comics in their home towns. Occasionally, rare items can be located through agencies that collect old papers and magazines, such as the Salvation Army. The lucky collector can often buy these items for much less than their current market value. Placing advertisements in trade journals, newspapers, etc. can also produce good results. However, don't be discouraged if you are neither energetic nor lucky. Most panelologists build their collections slowly but systematically by placing mail orders with dealers and other collectors.

Comics of early vintage are extremely expensive if they are purchased through a regular dealer or collector, and unless you have unlimited funds to invest in your hobby, you will find it necessary to restrict your collecting in certain ways. Every enthusiast defines his collection in a different manner. Some collect only runs of certain titles. Others collect only selected issues, which carry special stories or work by a favorite artist. Many collect only incomplete runs of their favorite titles, concentrating on certain periods. However you define your collection, you should be careful to set your goals well within your means.

WHERE TO BUY AND SELL

Throughout this book you will find the advertisements of many reputable dealers who sell back-issue comics magazines. If you are an inexperienced collector, be sure to compare prices before you buy. Never send large sums of money through the mail. Send money orders or checks for your personal protection. Beware of bargains, as the items advertised sometimes do not exist, but are only a fraud to get your money.

The Price Guide is indebted to everyone who placed ads in this volume, whose support has helped in curbing printing costs. Your mentioning this book when dealing with them would be greatly appreciated.

Attend a comic convention this year. There you will find an abundance of comic material for sale, as well as a chance to meet others who share your interest. Check the following publications for announcements of cons to be held in your area:

The RBCC 9875 S. W. 212 St. Miami, Fla. 33157	The Buyers Guide Dynapubs, RR 1, Box 297 East Moline, Ill. 61244	Nostalgia News P. O. Box 34305 Dallas, Texas 75234

The Price Guide highly recommends the above adzines, which are full of ads buying and selling comics, pulps, radio tapes, premiums, toys, and other related items. You can place ads to buy or sell your comics in the above publications, also.

HOW TO SELECT FANZINES

In the early 1960's, only a few comics fanzines were being published. A fan could easily afford to subscribe to them all. Today, the situation has radically changed, and it has become something of a problem to decide which fanzines to order.

Fanzines are not all of equal quality or general interest. Even different issues of the same fanzine may vary significantly. To locate issues that will be of interest to you, learn to look for the names of outstanding amateur artists, writers, and editors, and consult the fanzine review columns. Although you may not always agree with the judgments of the reviewers, you will find these reviews to be a valuable source of information about the content and quality of the current fanzines.

When ordering a fanzine, remember that print runs are small and that the issue you want may be out of print. (OP). Ordinarily in this case, you will receive the next issue. Because of irregular publishing schedules that nearly all fanzines must of necessity, observe, allow up to 90 days or more for your copy to reach you. It is common courtesy when addressing an inquiry to an ama-publisher to enclose a S.A.S.E. (Self Addressed, Stamped Envelope.)

COLLECTING STRIPS

Collecting newspaper comic strips is somewhat different than collecting magazines, although it can be equally satisfying. Obviously most strip collectors begin by clipping strips from their local papers, but many soon branch out to strips carried in out-of-town papers. Naturally this can become more expensive and it is often frustrating, because it is easy to miss editions of out-of-town papers. Consequently, most strip collectors work out trade agreements with collectors in other cities in order to get an uninterrupted supply of the strips they want. This usually necessitates saving local strips to be used for trade purposes only.

Back issues of strips dating back several decades are also available from time to time from dealers. The prices per panel vary greatly depending on the age, condition, and demand for the strip. When the original strips are unavailable, it is sometimes possible to get photostatic copies from collectors, libraries, or newspaper morgues.

COLLECTING FOREIGN COMICS

One extremely interesting source of comics of early vintage - one which does not necessarily have to be expensive - is the foreign market. Many American strips, from both papers and magazines, are reprinted abroad (both in English and in other languages) months and even years after they appear in the states. By working out trade agreements with foreign collectors, one can obtain, for practically the cover price, substantial runs of a number of newspaper strips and reprints of American comic books dating back five, ten, or occasionally even twenty or more years. These reprints are often in black and white, and sometimes the reproduction is poor, but this is not always the case. In any event, this is a source of material that every serious collector should look into.

Once the collector discovers comics published in foreign lands, he often becomes fascinated with the original strips produced in these countries. Many are excellent, and have a broader range of appeal than those of American comic books. They are published in magazines of every conceivable size and description. Any comics collection is enhanced by the addition of foreign comics. It is possible to build substantial collections of these magazines through the generous assistance of fans in countries like Australia, England, South Africa, Ireland, Scotland, and Canada. Look for their ads in the adzines listed on page 5, or check with dealers, some of which stock foreign comics.

COLLECTING ORIGINAL ART

In addition to magazines and strips, some enthusiasts also collect the original art for the comics. These black and white, inked drawings are usually done on Bristol Board "twice up" (i.e. twice the size of the printed panels.) Because original art is a one-of-a-kind article, it is highly prized and very difficult to obtain. The originals for daily and Sunday strips are sometimes available directly from the syndicate that distributes the strip. The originals for comic book art not generally available; however, in recent years, several comic book editors have awarded original art to fans for winning entries in contests of various kinds. Some editors have very generously donated art for door prizes at fan conventions. Panelologists are naturally hopeful that these practises will become even more wide-spread in the future.

OTHER FANAC

Collecting is only one of the many activities of comic fans. In fact, many fans maintain only very modest collections. Outside of corresponding with one another, which seems to be the "watermark" of the true fan, many fans spend a great deal of time researching articles, writing, drawing, and producing fanzines. The mania for producing fanzines is very wide-spread and competes for the time of some of the most ardent collectors. New fans, upon seeing a fanzine for the first time, are often seized with an almost uncontrollable urge to publish their own fanzine. This invariably turns out to be more expensive, and much more time-consuming than the novice had ever imagined. It also requires a great deal of skill and talent. The prospective ama-publisher is well-advised to examine carefully the already large number of existing fanzines, and to contribute to several of them before investing his own time, money, and energy in producing a fanzine.

THE HISTORY OF COMICS FANDOM

At this point in time it is possible to discern two distinct and largely unrelated movements in the history of Comics Fandom. The first of these movements began about 1953 as a response to the then-popular, trend-setting EC line of comics. The first true comics fanzines of this movement were short-lived. Bhob Stewart's EC FAN BULLETIN was a hectographed newsletter that ran two issues about six months apart; and Jimmy Taurasi's FANTASY COMICS, a newsletter devoted to all science-fiction comics of the period, was a monthly that ran for about six months. These were followed by other newsletters, such as Mike May's EC FAN JOURNAL, & George Jennings' EC WORLD PRESS. EC fanzines of a wider and more critical scope appeared somewhat later. Two of the finest were POTRZEBIE, the product of a number of fans, and Ron Parker's HOOHAH. Gauging from the response that POTRZEBIE received from a plug in an EC letter column, Ted White estimated the average age of EC fans to lie in the range 9 to 13, while most EC faneds were in their mid-teens. This fact was taken as discouraging to many of the faneds, who had hoped to reach an older audience. Consequently, many of them gave up their efforts in behalf of Comics Fandom, especially with the demise of the EC group, and turned their attention to science-fiction fandom with its longer tradition and older membership. While the flouish of fan activity in response to the EC comics was certainly noteworthy, it is fair to say that it never developed into a full-fledged, independent, and self-sustaining fan movement.

The second comics fan movement began in 1960. It was largely a response to (though it later became a stimulus for) the Second Heroic Age of Comics. Most fan historians date the Second Heroic Age from the appearance of the new FLASH comics magazine (numbered 105 and dated February, 1959). The letter departments of Julius Schwartz (editor at National Periodicals), and later those of Stan Lee (Marvel Group) and Bill Harris (Gold Key) were most influential in bringing comics readers into Fandom. Beyond question, it was the reappearance of the costumed hero that sparked the comics fan movement of the sixties. Sparks were lit among some science-fiction fans first, where experienced fan writers, who were part of an established tradition, produced the first in a series of articles on the comics of the forties - ALL IN COLOR FOR A DIME. The series was introduced in XERO #1 (Sept., 1960), a general fanzine for science-fiction fandom edited and published by Dick Lupoff.

Meanwhile, outside science-fiction fandom, Jerry Bails and Roy Thomas, two strictly comics fans of long-standing, conceived the first true comics fanzine in response to the Second Heroic Age. The fanzine, ALTER EGO, appeared in March, 1961. The first several issues were widely circulated among comics fans, and were to influence profoundly the comics fan movement to follow. Unlike the earlier EC fan movement, this new movement attracted many fans in their twenties and thirties. A number of these older fans had been active collectors for years but had been largely unknown to each other. Joined by scores of new, younger fans, this group formed the nucleus of a new movement that is still growing and shows every indication of being self-sustaining. Although it has borrowed a few of the more appropriate terms coined by science-fiction fans, Comics Fandom of the Sixties was an independent if fledgling movement, without, in most cases, the advantages and disadvantages of a longer tradition. What Comics Fandom did derive from science-fiction fandom it does so thanks largely to the fanzines produced by so-called double fans. The most notable of this type is COMIC ART, edited and published by Don and Maggie Thompson.

THE FIRST COMIC STRIPS IN AMERICA

Even before the Civil War, American newspapers made use of drawings to dramatize, satirize, and comment on political and social events. Cartoons with gag lines or captions were commonplace. However, not until 1896 were written words systematically incorporated into the drawings themselves. This important step in the evolution of comics occurred with the appearance of Richard Outcault's epoch-making strip THE YELLOW KID. The strip was an instant hit and became a regular feature in the Sunday pages of the New York WORLD. Soon after, other comic strips in a similar vein began to appear in rival newspapers. In 1897, American readers were introduced to THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS, and ere long the characteristic features of the comics --the breakdown of the action into a sequence of panels, and the use of balloons to carry dialogue -- were firmly established.

Since the turn of the century, comic strips have been, and continue to be, the most universally popular feature of newspapers. Each decade has seen the introduction of dozens of new strips. As with all popular art forms, comics reflect the times into which they are born; however, many comics have an appeal so broad that they have succeeded in binding together into one audience people speaking many different languages and living in different generations. A number of truly great strips are destined to outlive generations of artists as well as readers.

THE BIRTH OF COMIC BOOKS

Bound collections of actual-size reprints of newspaper comic strips appeared as early as 1908 when the Cupples & Leon Company reprinted BUSTER BROWN in an 11½ X 16 booklet. However, it was not until 1933 that the first "comic book" of standard magazine proportions was published. This was FUNNIES ON PARADE, one of a number of such magazines published in that year as advertising premiums. That year also saw the appearance of FAMOUS FUNNIES, the first comic book to be offered for sale to the general public. It was sold through chain stores as an experiment to test public reaction to comics magazines. Like the "premium" comics out of which it developed, FAMOUS FUNNIES consisted of reprints of popular newspaper strips. Although the public reaction to the new magazine was very favorable, the publishing industry was still hesitant. Finally, in 1934 the Eastern Color Printing Company was persuaded to publish FAMOUS FUN-

NIES on a regular basis for distribution through regular magazine outlets. An issue appeared dated May, 1934 -- however, regular numbering of FAMOUS FUNNIES began with the July, 1934 issue. In time, other publishers entered the field with such titles as: POPULAR (Feb. 1936), TIP TOP (April 1936), and KING (April 1936). Most of these early comics carried a wide variety of strips, although again they were mainly reprints from the newspapers.

The first regular comic book to carry original material especially created for the magazine medium was NEW FUN COMICS #1 (February 1935), while the first comic book to be devoted to strips of a single theme -- as comic books are today -- was DETECTIVE COMICS #1 (Mar. 1937). However, despite these innovations, the comics magazine continued to make only a minor impression on the American scene -- that is, until the appearance of ACTION COMICS #1 (June 1938), which introduced the now world famous fantasy character, Superman. The dynamic and colorful "Man of Tomorrow" (as he was known in those days) immediately caught the public's fancy. His introduction resulted in one of the most phenomenal periods of growth the publishing industry had ever witnessed. Hundreds of new titles were created as dozens of publishers entered the comics field. The predominant theme was, of course, costumed fantasy heroes. Not dozens, but hundreds were created to fill the almost insatiable demands of readers. Superman gave rise to a "Golden Era" in the history of comics, technically referred to as "The First Heroic Age of Comic Books." For a full decade, the fellows in the long underwear ruled supreme, as comic books became the largest selling magazines in the world.

After the war, comic book sales began to decline, creating a period of flux and change as the comics industry searched for new titles. Many western, funny animal, love, adventure, and crime titles appeared and disappeared with equal rapidity. In early 1950, Educational Comics, Inc. announced their New Trend in comics magazines which ushered in the now famous E.C. era of crime, horror, and science fiction. The rest of the industry followed suit and sales began to climb once again -- but not for long. In 1954, Dr. Fredrick Wertham published his book, "Seduction of the Innocent", and soon after, the comics industry was under fire; crime and horror titles in particular. In 1955 an official comics censorship was formed, "The Comics Code Authority" (CCA), whose stamp of approval can be found on comic books to this very day. Because of bad publicity, the comics industry began looking for a New Direction as the then popular "blood & gore" titles fell by the wayside. During this period, some publishers got out of the business, while others shifted to the adult magazine market, leaving only a small handful to carry on in hope of a brighter future.

During the 1950's, a few attempts were made to revive the costume hero, most of which proved fruitless. It was not until the Fall of 1956 that a definite "trend" seemed to be shaping up, starting with the revival of The Flash in National Periodical's SHOWCASE #4. After several more appearances in Showcase, The Flash began his own series in Feb.-March, 1959 with the appearance of FLASH COMICS #105 - (a continuation of the old number from 1949). The comics industry, however, was not out of the woods yet -- not until the appearance of FANTASTIC FOUR #1 in November, 1961. This book, published by Marvel Comics Group, began the "Marvel Age" of comics magazines which took the 60's by storm. The costume hero was in, and many of the 1940's heroes were revived during this period, including The Spectre, The Flash, The Human Torch, Sub-Mariner, Green Lantern, and Captain America, to name a few. This Period is technically referred to as the "Second Heroic Age of Comic Books".

CLASSIC COMICS (--Illustrated #35 on)
1941 - Present
Gilberton Publications

The title change to Classics Ill. was in March, 1947. Reprints began almost from the start. #1 was first reprinted in 4/43. The last reprinting with the old "Classic Comics" title occurred in 9/46. Reprints of almost all issues were printed from 1943 to the present. The value of reprints is considerably less than 1st printings. Starting in 11/63, the date of the reprinting rather than the date of the 1st printing was entered inside the front cover. Material after this date is 15¢ a copy. Issues #53, 66,73,74,84,93 & 117 were never reported in reprint. While only one price is shown in the reprint columns, those having lower numbers on the back order are more desirable than those with higher numbers, assuming condition was constant. e.g., a Classics Illustrated reprint of #1 with a back order list of #36 is valued higher than a #1 reprint with a back order list of #60 or #143.

NOTE: All 1st printings advertise "What's coming next (Month)", reprints never do.

Classics Collectors Club

NEWSLETTER

1930 West Warwick Lane
Roselle, Illinois 60172

Collectors of Classics Illustrated/Classic Comics and other Gilberton publications are invited to join the Classics Collectors Club. We may have some of those missing numbers you've been searching high and low for. Over 5,000 Classics are on hand. If we don't have the first printing, we certainly have an old reprint (where they exist).

Should you wish to sell your collection of Classics this is the place to come. Most dealers do not handle Classics since they are confused by all the reprint dates. By sending your Classics to us, they will end up in the hands of a collector who avidly wants them and not sit unwanted on a dusty shelf.

The logo above is from the first newsletter published exclusively for Classics collectors. If you would like a copy of this issue, send your name, address and an 8¢ stamp to us and you'll be sent a copy. The second issue is being distributed and will be made available to anyone requesting a copy under the same conditions. Presently we send the newsletter to 100 collectors and dealers. When the list gets larger, we may ask a nominal subscription charge, but not until the cost is too high to handle ourselves.

The most interesting Classics collectors and researchers are helping the newsletter. Classics number one fan of long standing, Mike Nicastre, has contributed material on overseas Classics. Bill Briggs is the expert on ancillary Gilberton publications. Bob Pfister is a long time fan whose specialty is Classic crossword puzzles. Hames Ware, who with Jerry Bails is close to completing the monumental "Who's Who of American Comic Books", which will become the standard reference work for the hobby, has a special love for Classics and has furnished research on identification of artists that no one else could furnish.

Did you know that Stanley Maxwell's last name was Zukerberg or that Lillian Chestney (#8 & #16) is his wife? Do you know who drew #2? Could it be Edd Ashe from the Lloyd Jacquet shop? Don and Maggie Thompson have also provided valuable assistance to us (and everyone else) with their Classics checklist and New Fangles mention.

Following is a partial listing of contents from our first newsletter. Future contents will reflect the interests of you, the Classics collector.

--A listing of wants from everyone who has made his wants known to me. For you others who have not sent in your wants, all it takes to be listed where all the known Classics collectors in the U.S. and Canada can review your needs is a post card or letter to the editor.

--A Classics humor item. Our first item was given to me by Bill Desmond last fall when I was up in Cambridge, Massachusetts looking for Classics.

--Feature articles on items of interest to ourselves. The first issue discusses a little of the dating of early Classic Comics, how to pinpoint the early issues and also other problems with issues of other times.

--Dealers: Yes we do need them! We try here to advise our friends about some dealers to avoid and why. We also will give a plug for those who have given good service at a fair price. Incidentally, I need information from you about this item. For this issue the views are pretty much my own. Future issues should include your views.

--Future projects: While most of the items listed will appear again in the future, some may not. This feature talks about some of the things we may do in future issues.

Editor: Raymond S. True

Here is the scarcest MICKEY MOUSE items ever offered. First, the illustrated ad that appeared in 1930, telling of MICKEY leaving the movies and starting in his own comic!! Then, the very first MICKEY strip ever, where he introduces himself and friends. Add to this, 7 weeks of his first adventure, all original large size, plus over 30 different original ads, from the 1930-34 era, of Disney Products. Many never seen before! Can be used as an identifying catalog in itself! Color covers, Book is 10-1/2 x 11 inches. Satisfaction or full Refund.

let me chase away the blues!

GET a laugh every day with Mickey Mouse, the personality-plus comic whose thousand little tricks stamp him as the most original and amusing funster you've ever seen. From comic to comic they're laughing with Mickey, the sensational new pet who has discovered the funny-bone of the nation with the wittiest, snappiest, funniest line in entertainment history.

Mickey Mouse

is acclaimed the greatest individual hit the "talkies" have uncovered. And now as a comic strip, he scores a blue-ribbon daily laugh "scoop" for this newspaper. You'll laugh as you've never laughed before when you see him do his stuff.

yes, MEN OF DISTINCTION seek the best in rare items. Our business is distinctively geared for their taste.

We make a DISTINCT EFFORT to bring you the best in the field of rare and unique books and magazines, and most particularly in such items as: Early Comic Magazines (often referred to by the undiscriminating bourgeoisie as "Funny Books!"), Big-Little Books, Superman memorabilia, etc., etc., etc., etc., etc. (Specializing in pre-1955).

FURTHERMORE: It is our desire to assure you that these items will come to you promptly and most carefully wrapped (in what we consider to be a unique and distinctive manner), with full refund privileges assured -- as befits the most distinguishing of buyers!

A common self-addressed envelope will bring you an up-to-date and detailed LISTING of these rare and sought-after items. You need simply to ask for one or more of these brand-name publishers by name: DC; DELL-HARVEY; FAWCETT; MLJ; QUALITY; TIMELY; and/or VARIETY-POTPOURRI (commonly called "Miscellaneous"). Also BLB!

Do you remember those wonderful old radio shows, like AMOS & ANDY, THE SHADOW, JACK BENNY, LIGHTS OUT, FRED ALLEN? Remember when the B-Western movie was big, with stars like ROY ROGERS, TOM MIX, LASH LARUE, BUSTER CRABBE, TEX RITTER? And who could forget the great comics of yesteryear: GREEN HORNET, CAPT. AMERICA, SPY SMASHER, CAPT. MIDNIGHT? And what about the old tv shows, the magnificent old movies of the past (remember Errol Flynn in ROBIN HOOD?), the great sports heroes, the talented cartoonists? If all of these subjects stir a happy memory within you, then the publication for you is...

AL (Ferry) ST. JOHN and BUSTER CRABBE in the new P.R.C. Production "LAW AND ORDER."

REMEMBER WHEN

REMEMBER WHEN is a great new magazine devoted to the wonderful things from the good ol' days, and it's nostalgia all the way. Each issue is jam-packed with articles, photos and drawings of those things that thrilled us when we were young. Featured in the first few issues are such items as...

"Whatever Happened to Flibber McGee?" (a long, nostalgic look at the golden days of radio)..."The Injustice Society" (all about the greatest team-up of villains in the history of comics)..."Tex Ritter, the Singing Cowboy" (an in-depth article on his western movies)..."Mad Magazine Forever" (all about EC's Mad Comics)..."The Western Stars" (rare pictures of cowboy stars like Buck Jones, Ken Maynard, etc.)..."The Mascot Tiger" (a look at the serials made by Mascot Pictures)..."Dick Tracy's Villains" (a feature on some of the meanest bad-guys Tracy ever battled!)..."From Comics to Serials" (covers everything from Flash Gordon to Capt. Marvel!)..."Day of the Locusts" (a look at such super-heroes as Spark Man, Dynamic Man, the Grey Comet, etc.)..."The Tarzan Radio Show" (the radio career of the Apeman!)..."The Radio Stars" (photos and posters on the great radio programs of the 1940s)..."Boris Karloff" (a tribute to the monster-king)... and much more! These topics, and others, are covered in the first few issues of REMEMBER WHEN, and are just a sample of the great things to come! This magazine is sold by subscription only, and you can get the first 4 issues for $2.50 (which includes the postage and sturdy envelopes). And if you really want to go head over heels for nostalgia, get the first 8 gala issues for only $4.50 (gosh, you save 50 cents). Or...if you're jumping up and down already and can hardly wait, you can get your copies sent via 1st class mail by sending 25 cents per copy extra.

No matter how you look at it, it's a great deal, and REMEMBER WHEN is the event of the year! Send your orders to: REMEMBER WHEN, 1830 Highland Drive, Carrollton, Texas 75006. The past lives again in our pages; Will you be there to REMEMBER WHEN..?

COMIC BOOKS SOLD, BOUGHT, & TRADED

STOCK

Over 40,000 Marvel, D. C., Dell, Gold Key, E. C., Disney, Golden Age, etc. 1938 to present. 1965 and later are in A & B condition.

CONDITION

I am very fussy about condition and grade my Comic Books using the letter system listed below:

A	Mint to Very Fine
B	Fine to Very Good
C	Good to Fair
D	Fair to Poor

In all cases the Comic Book is complete unless otherwise stated.

GUARANTEE

All Comic Books sold are guaranteed to be in the condition stated. Any Comic Book can be returned for a full refund within two weeks of receipt regardless of the reason.

INQUIRIES WELCOMED

I print no lists. All of my Comics are stocked and catalogued so that I always know what I have available. Send inquiries, indicating the Comic Books you need, listing the name of the Comic Book, Issue #'s, and Condition (or Conditions you will accept), with a STAMPED self-addressed envelope to my address listed above or below. I will remove from my stock and list for you the material that I have and reserve this material for you for 4 weeks (2 weeks on Golden Age). I will send this list to you in your SASE and include a SASE of mine so that you can send me your order (this method evens out the cost of postage for correspondence). My Prices are generally to this PRICE GUIDE. Please Do Not List material that you cannot afford or you are not serious about buying.

PRICES

On older Comic Books (1936 -1960) I generally price to this PRICE GUIDE. On the recent Marvels & D. C.'s I price according to year and condition. Packing & Postage charges are at the rate of 25¢ for the first 7 Comic Books ordered and 2¢ for each additional Comic Book over 7 ordered. Golden Age, Annuals, Giants and 25¢ issues are counted as 2 Comic Books (4¢ for each ordered). Books sent Book Rate. Insurance is charged at the Post Office rates: 20¢ $0.00 to $15; 30¢ $15.01 to $50; 40¢ $50.01 to $100; etc. Not responsible for Comic Books lost or damaged in the mail unless insured.

PURCHASE COMIC BOOKS

I also buy A & B condition Comic Books and generally pay  $\frac{1}{2}$  of my selling prices. Mainly interested in Golden Age and E. C.'s. and will pay  $\frac{1}{2}$  the prices listed in this PRICE GUIDE. Also interested in A & B condition (Superhero only) Marvels pre-1964 and D. C. pre-1960.

COMMENTS

I have been in this Comic Book business (part time for about 5 years. I have the WE Seal of Approval (WSA) and try and be fair in grading Comic Books as well as pricing whether buying or selling. I grade the condition of my Comic Books very very strictly. I have had few returns and many compliments on the condition of the Comic Books ordered from me. Send me your long range want list (see State) with SASE and I will keep an eye out for your wants.

A-1 COMIC Collectors

Comics and comic book collectors we love. Our whole family -- ten in number -- really dig them. We're a small friendly outfit willing to try to come up with the comics you're looking for. We do NOT publish a catalog, so just drop us a line on your wants, we'll check our stock and list the comics we have, their condition and our asking price. Please include a self addressed stamped envelope with your inquiry. Our Mail Order Dept. Address is:

800 ACOMA ST., DENVER, COLO. 80204.

When in Denver, Colorado drop by and see our little shop in the basement of the Ogden Book Store, 919 East Colfax Ave. We're open Tuesday and Thursdays 6 - 8 p.m., and Saturday noon to 4 p.m. We'll be glad to meet you.

ARE YOU SELLING COMICS BUT ARE SICK AND TIRED OF GETTING RIPPED-OFF BY "REPUTABLE" DEALERS, BOOK CENTERS, AND COLLECTORS WHO PAY YOU ONLY 20 to 50% OF THEIR LIST VALUE??? HAVE YOU READ THE CLAIM "HIGHEST PRICES PAID" ONLY TO FIND THAT THOSE "HIGHEST PRICES" WERE THE SAME LOW PRICES AS EVERY OTHER DEALER???

IF SO, FINANCIAL RELIEF IS HERE. I AM A SERIOUS COLLECTOR WHO IS TRYING TO EXPAND MY PRESENT COLLECTION. I AM BUYING COMICS FROM 1936- 1968 AND I CAN OFFER YOU MUCH MORE FOR YOUR BOOKS THAN ANY DEALER. I CAN DO THIS BECAUSE UNLIKE DEALERS, I DO NOT RESELL WHAT I BUY. EVERYTHING GOES IN MY OWN COLLECTION. DOUBLES ARE TRADED TO OTHER COLLECTORS.

JUST SEND ME A LIST OF WHAT YOU ARE SELLING, CONDITION, PRICE ASKED, AND S.A.S.E. TO

New England Comic Art Convention

BOX 3184
BROCKTON, MASS. 02403

The first Comic Art Convention is to be held in New England on Labor Day weekend, September 2 - 4, 1972.

Sponsored by top fans, dealers, and fanzine editors in the New England area.

The exact program is tentative. But there will be 3 top speakers, one of the biggest comic art shows ever, film shows, slide shows, panel discussions, banquet, black-lite show, regular poster display, maybe a costume parade, and many other things to see. Also there will be many dealers with all kinds of comics and related items, plus movies, movie stills, tapes, posters and many other items for you to look at and buy.

Dealers write for table rates (low). This should be a big show as we are doing a lot of advertising, including an ad in Marvel Comics (7,500,000 circulation).

It will be held at the Sheraton Hotel located in the Prudential Center of Boston. Close to everything by car or public transportation.

TO JOIN: Send $2.50 for 3 day membership(after Aug. 1, it will be $3.00). Include your name, address, and zip code.

More details will be sent on request.
(There will be more details available when this sees print).

SCIENCE FICTION, COMIC BOOKS, MOVIE MAGAZINES, ALL RELATED ITEMS.
PLAYBOY & PENTHOUSE MAGAZINES.

We buy, sell or trade at our store.
Mail order by special arrangements.
